What's inside

Numbers 1-20	یک · دو · سه ...	20 cards	3 sheets
Colors	قرمز · آبی · سبز ...	12 cards	2 sheets
Animals	سگ · گربه · اسب ...	24 cards	3 sheets
Family	مادر · پدر · برادر ...	16 cards	2 sheets
Days of the week	شنبه · یکشنبه · دوشنبه ...	7 cards	1 sheet
Greetings	سلام · خدا حافظ · صبح بخیر ...	12 cards	2 sheets
Total		91 cards	13 sheets

Tip: start with greetings and numbers, then add one new set a week. Shuffle the cards and look at the Persian side first; say the word aloud before you flip.

How to print and cut

Option A: double-sided (best). Print the whole file on US Letter paper with two-sided printing and "flip on long edge" (sometimes called "long-edge binding"). Set scale to 100% / Actual size, not "fit to page". Each card's back lines up with its front.

Option B: single-sided. Print single-sided. Lay each front sheet on its back sheet (the page right after it), hold them up to a window to line them up, glue them together, then cut.

Cutting. Cut along the dashed lines on the front side. Card stock (65–110 lb) makes the cards last longer; laminating works well for classrooms.

Check your printer first. Print pages 3–4 only and hold the sheet up to the light. If the backs are upside down, switch to the other flip setting.

Transliteration key: â = a in "father", a = a in "cat", e = e in "bed", o = o in "go", i = ee in "see", u = oo in "food", kh = ch in "loch", gh = a deep throaty g, zh = s in "measure", ' = a short catch in the voice.

Words are standard Persian (Farsi) as used in Iran. Phrases marked "informal" are the everyday spoken form. More free printables and lessons: learnpersianonline.com/free-persian-printables/
